

SECTION THREE.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1909.

PAGES 1 TO 8.

ONE festival of the year that belongs alike to young and old is the celebration on the eve of All Saints' day, the ancient Halloween. It is a time when pranks of all sorts are in order, and jokes that would not be tolerated at any other time are not only condoned, but are really enjoyed by all participating in the fun. The wanton destruction of property is, of course, as much to be derided in this celebration as in any other, and it is because of the vandalism that many look upon the festival with disfavor. But without the playing of any practical jokes, there are plenty of innocent amusements that can be indulged in, that are not a part of the usual forms of entertainments, and the occasion offers many opportunities to those who are contemplating entertainments.

The witching hour seems truly to be with us on this night, when ghosts and goblins hold sway over the land, and one expects to see some dreadful phantom dart upon at every turn. And one is then privileged to call upon all of these spirits of the darkness for aid in the reading of one's destiny. Then are all maidens allowed to make earnest search into the mysterious realms of the future, and to resort to all kinds of son's beautiful portrait painting will be given.

A number of the members of the Country club will go out to the club on Halloween for an informal dinner, to be followed by dancing and bridge during the evening.

The students of Rowland Hall will give a Halloween party next Saturday evening at the hall, with Miss Colburn and the members of the faculty as hostesses for the evening.

The "Flower" Five Hundred club will be entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Fred W. Meakin, in the new bungalow, No. 1077 Second avenue.

Mrs. Karl Scheid will entertain with a children's party to be given at her home on Halloween in honor of her niece, little Miss Adelaide Woodruff.

Mrs. Clark B. Elliott will be the hostess at a luncheon to be given at the Wilson hotel Monday, the guest of honor being Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman. Covers will be laid for Mrs. William Purviance, Mrs. T. R. Harkey, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Thomas Parker, who is Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Prescott Hampton, the honored guests being her daughter, Mrs. D. W. Hamlin of San Francisco, and her niece, Miss Ethel Plant of Sacramento, Cal.

Mrs. R. W. Madsen will entertain the members of her card club Friday evening at her home.

Mrs. M. N. Asper and the Misses Baxter will entertain at a shower to be given in honor of Miss Leone Edmonds Friday evening, Oct. 29.

Members of St. Mark's cathedral parish are cordially invited to meet Bishop Brewster on Monday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock at the residence of J. Walcott Thompson, 24 D street.

The Orphans' Home and Day Nursery association will hold a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Edwin Kimball, No. 124 South Sixth East street, next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

There will be a called meeting of the Kindergarten association at the home of Mrs. Elmer Jones at 10 o'clock Monday, Oct. 25.

The members of the T. O. N. O. club will give a Halloween party next Saturday evening at the home of Miss Lucille Hatch in North First West street.

The ladies of the Kindergarten society are planning to give a social evening at the First Methodist church in November, the date to be decided upon later.

Section nine of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church will entertain with a Halloween social in the church parlors next Friday evening. A feature of the evening's entertainment will be several vocal selections given by Mr. Kirby and Mrs. A. S. Peters.

The Utopia club will be entertained at a luncheon Thursday, Nov. 3, at the home of Mrs. Olive M. Gaylord in the Ivanhoe apartments.

The Quingenta club will be entertained Tuesday at the Smith apartments, Mrs. J. H. Bardwell being the hostess for the afternoon.

Mrs. Lafayette C. Hanchett will entertain the Plate club at her home in Third avenue Friday, instead of Thursday, as heretofore announced.

The charity card party of the Jewish Ladies' Progressive Aid society will be held at 8:15 o'clock this evening in the school rooms of the synagogue in Third East street.

A Halloween party will be given by Miss Lillian Riser and Miss Evelyn Riser Saturday evening, Oct. 30, at the home of Miss Gartside in Seventh avenue.

Invitations have been issued for a Halloween party to be given next Saturday evening at the home of Miss Etta Gundry in North Second West street, with Miss Mabel Spencer and Miss Gundry as the hostesses.

Mrs. Thomas Carrigan will open her home for the meeting of the members of her sewing club Monday, Oct. 25, at the Smith apartments.

The interclub club will hold the next meeting with Miss Hannah White Monday afternoon, Oct. 25, at 546 East Second South street. This club is composed of the Jewish girls of the city.

The first meeting of the Regimental Bridge club for the season will be held next Tuesday evening, Oct. 26, those entertaining the club being Major and Mrs. James Arrasmith, Lieutenant and Mrs. Edwin Dutson, Lieutenant and Mrs. Adams and Lieutenant O. Ellis.

The Monday Afternoon Card club will hold its next meeting Monday, Oct. 25, at the home of Mrs. James Ingelbreten in East Second South street.

The Rosebud club will hold its next meeting Tuesday, Oct. 26, at the home of Agnes Sullivan, 1350 Lincoln avenue.

The annual donation of the Deaconsess house will occur Tuesday, Oct. 26, at the Deaconsess home, No. 347 South Fourth East street.

Mrs. M. A. Alvord will be the hostess for the members of her bridge club at their next meeting, Friday, Nov. 5.

The C. J. club will meet at the home of Miss Beale Wilcox on Monday evening, Oct. 25.

The members of the Crystal Card club will hold their next meeting on Tuesday evening, Nov. 10, by Mrs. C. A. Quigley.

Mrs. S. O. S. Nelden entertained informally at a delightful bridge tea given Saturday afternoon at her home in P street. A pretty arrangement of nasturtiums and cosmos were used in the decorations.

The home of Mrs. A. T. Sanford in the Virginia apartments was the scene of a pretty bridge tea given Saturday afternoon. Five tables of bridge were played, and the house was prettily decorated in pink, white and cream.

C. P. Overfield will entertain at a stag dinner at the Alta club Monday night.

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was the hostess at a charming bridge tea given at the Country club yesterday afternoon. Autumn leaves were used with pretty effect on the table, and a mound of nasturtiums graced the centerpiece.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the luncheon given yesterday by the Misses Beulah and Norma Woodruff at their home in Fifth East street, the guest of honor being Miss Veda Beebe. The dining room was decorated in a color scheme of yellow, a lace piece over yellow satin covering the table, which was decorated with shaded candelabra. The centerpiece was a golden pumpkin, filled with yellow nasturtiums, which were held by lighted tapers. Autumn leaves were used in decorating the dining room and the parlor, where clusters of pink roses were also used with charming effect.

The invited guests were the Misses Viola and Mignon Denhalter, Miss Sybilla Clayton, Miss Elsie Yates, Miss Margaret Warner, Miss Louise Clawson, Miss Francis McChrystal, Miss Albo Dunbar, Miss Alice Nibley, Miss Rea Nibley, Miss Emma Beebe and Mrs. O. C. Beebe.

Miss Jean McNeil was the hostess at a delightful Orpheum party given yesterday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. William St. Clair Rivers, a recent bride. Luncheon at Franklin's followed the matinee.

A delightful stag dinner at the Louvre, following a theatre party, was given last night in honor of B. A. Betiloy, who will be married next week.

Mrs. R. W. Madsen entertained at five hundred Wednesday afternoon, about forty guests being present. The rooms were decorated in autumn leaves and white asters. Prizes were won by Mrs. Van D. Spaulding and Mrs. James Ingelbreten.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanders celebrated their eighth wedding anniversary during the week at their home in the Oxford apartments.

Mrs. E. E. McBurn was the hostess at the second of a series of bridge teas at her home Friday afternoon. Six tables were played, and the house was very beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and cosmos.

A very pleasant reception given during the week was that at the First Presbyterian church Friday. Those who assisted in receiving the members of the church were Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Silver, Mrs. R. E. McConaughy, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. C. S. Smith, Mrs. Margaret Warner, Miss Arline McMillan, Miss Alice Martin and Miss Gladys McCaughy assisted in serving. Autumn foliage was used in the decorating.

The T. O. N. O. club was delightfully entertained Thursday evening at the home of Miss Beale Wilcox in Second avenue. Autumn leaves and flowers were used with charming effect in the table decorations, and covers were laid for twelve guests. The house was decorated with a mound of yellow chrysanthemums and a centerpiece of pink and white flowers.

The Gamma Phi society of the university gave a rush party at the Orpheum Saturday night. The house was decorated with autumn leaves and flowers.

The James C. Rice circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., entertained in honor of their club at the home of Mrs. J. C. Rice, Columbus hall last Monday evening. It was one of the most successful socials of the season. The house was decorated with autumn leaves and flowers.

The following program was rendered: "Opening Address," by the president, Miss Bessie; address, "Ex-Prisoners of War," Thomas Loughney; recitation, "Wounded," Mrs. J. C. Rice; violin and piano selection, Darrell and Gladys Lyon; address, "G. A. R. Ladies," Mrs. J. C. Rice; piano, Mrs. J. C. Rice; violin and piano selection, "The Race," Miss Anna McDonald; recitation, sketch of General James C. Rice, by Miss Hazel Knowles.

Miss Ruby Renshaw was the hostess Friday night at a delightful surprise given in honor of the sixteenth birthday of her sister, Lillian Renshaw. The home of the hostess was the scene of a delightful evening. Assisting in the entertaining were Violet Jensen, Mary Hanson and Pearl Renshaw. Thirty guests were present. Piano selections were given by Jack O'Donnell and Lillian Renshaw. Vocal selections were given by Pearl Renshaw and others.

A charming bridge tea given Monday afternoon was that with which the Misses Anna and Genevieve McCormick entertained at the home in Center street. The tables of bridge were played, and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. John A. Marshall and Mrs. Frank Jennings. The hostess was assisted in the dining room by Mrs. Russell L. Tracy, Mrs. J. B. Risque and Mrs. Robert Gensler.

A luncheon party was given next Saturday evening at the home of Miss Etta Gundry in North Second West street, with Miss Mabel Spencer and Miss Gundry as the hostesses.

Mrs. Thomas Carrigan will open her home for the meeting of the members of her sewing club Monday, Oct. 25, at the Smith apartments.

The interclub club will hold the next meeting with Miss Hannah White Monday afternoon, Oct. 25, at 546 East Second South street. This club is composed of the Jewish girls of the city.

The first meeting of the Regimental Bridge club for the season will be held next Tuesday evening, Oct. 26, those entertaining the club being Major and Mrs. James Arrasmith, Lieutenant and Mrs. Edwin Dutson, Lieutenant and Mrs. Adams and Lieutenant O. Ellis.

The Monday Afternoon Card club will hold its next meeting Monday, Oct. 25, at the home of Mrs. James Ingelbreten in East Second South street.

The Rosebud club will hold its next meeting Tuesday, Oct. 26, at the home of Agnes Sullivan, 1350 Lincoln avenue.

The annual donation of the Deaconsess house will occur Tuesday, Oct. 26, at the Deaconsess home, No. 347 South Fourth East street.

Mrs. M. A. Alvord will be the hostess for the members of her bridge club at their next meeting, Friday, Nov. 5.

The C. J. club will meet at the home of Miss Beale Wilcox on Monday evening, Oct. 25.

The members of the Crystal Card club will hold their next meeting on Tuesday evening, Nov. 10, by Mrs. C. A. Quigley.

Mrs. S. O. S. Nelden entertained informally at a delightful bridge tea given Saturday afternoon at her home in P street. A pretty arrangement of nasturtiums and cosmos were used in the decorations.

The home of Mrs. A. T. Sanford in the Virginia apartments was the scene of a pretty bridge tea given Saturday afternoon. Five tables of bridge were played, and the house was prettily decorated in pink, white and cream.

C. P. Overfield will entertain at a stag dinner at the Alta club Monday night.

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was the hostess at a charming bridge tea given at the Country club yesterday afternoon. Autumn leaves were used with pretty effect on the table, and a mound of nasturtiums graced the centerpiece.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the luncheon given yesterday by the Misses Beulah and Norma Woodruff at their home in Fifth East street, the guest of honor being Miss Veda Beebe. The dining room was decorated in a color scheme of yellow, a lace piece over yellow satin covering the table, which was decorated with shaded candelabra. The centerpiece was a golden pumpkin, filled with yellow nasturtiums, which were held by lighted tapers. Autumn leaves were used in decorating the dining room and the parlor, where clusters of pink roses were also used with charming effect.

The invited guests were the Misses Viola and Mignon Denhalter, Miss Sybilla Clayton, Miss Elsie Yates, Miss Margaret Warner, Miss Louise Clawson, Miss Francis McChrystal, Miss Albo Dunbar, Miss Alice Nibley, Miss Rea Nibley, Miss Emma Beebe and Mrs. O. C. Beebe.

Miss Jean McNeil was the hostess at a delightful Orpheum party given yesterday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. William St. Clair Rivers, a recent bride. Luncheon at Franklin's followed the matinee.

A delightful stag dinner at the Louvre, following a theatre party, was given last night in honor of B. A. Betiloy, who will be married next week.

Mrs. R. W. Madsen entertained at five hundred Wednesday afternoon, about forty guests being present. The rooms were decorated in autumn leaves and white asters. Prizes were won by Mrs. Van D. Spaulding and Mrs. James Ingelbreten.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanders celebrated their eighth wedding anniversary during the week at their home in the Oxford apartments.

Mrs. E. E. McBurn was the hostess at the second of a series of bridge teas at her home Friday afternoon. Six tables were played, and the house was very beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and cosmos.

A very pleasant reception given during the week was that at the First Presbyterian church Friday. Those who assisted in receiving the members of the church were Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Silver, Mrs. R. E. McConaughy, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. C. S. Smith, Mrs. Margaret Warner, Miss Arline McMillan, Miss Alice Martin and Miss Gladys McCaughy assisted in serving. Autumn foliage was used in the decorating.

The T. O. N. O. club was delightfully entertained Thursday evening at the home of Miss Beale Wilcox in Second avenue. Autumn leaves and flowers were used with charming effect in the table decorations, and covers were laid for twelve guests. The house was decorated with a mound of yellow chrysanthemums and a centerpiece of pink and white flowers.

The Gamma Phi society of the university gave a rush party at the Orpheum Saturday night. The house was decorated with autumn leaves and flowers.

The James C. Rice circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., entertained in honor of their club at the home of Mrs. J. C. Rice, Columbus hall last Monday evening. It was one of the most successful socials of the season. The house was decorated with autumn leaves and flowers.

The following program was rendered: "Opening Address," by the president, Miss Bessie; address, "Ex-Prisoners of War," Thomas Loughney; recitation, "Wounded," Mrs. J. C. Rice; violin and piano selection, Darrell and Gladys Lyon; address, "G. A. R. Ladies," Mrs. J. C. Rice; piano, Mrs. J. C. Rice; violin and piano selection, "The Race," Miss Anna McDonald; recitation, sketch of General James C. Rice, by Miss Hazel Knowles.

Miss Ruby Renshaw was the hostess Friday night at a delightful surprise given in honor of the sixteenth birthday of her sister, Lillian Renshaw. The home of the hostess was the scene of a delightful evening. Assisting in the entertaining were Violet Jensen, Mary Hanson and Pearl Renshaw. Thirty guests were present. Piano selections were given by Jack O'Donnell and Lillian Renshaw. Vocal selections were given by Pearl Renshaw and others.

A charming bridge tea given Monday afternoon was that with which the Misses Anna and Genevieve McCormick entertained at the home in Center street. The tables of bridge were played, and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. John A. Marshall and Mrs. Frank Jennings. The hostess was assisted in the dining room by Mrs. Russell L. Tracy, Mrs. J. B. Risque and Mrs. Robert Gensler.

A luncheon party was given next Saturday evening at the home of Miss Etta Gundry in North Second West street, with Miss Mabel Spencer and Miss Gundry as the hostesses.

Mrs. Thomas Carrigan will open her home for the meeting of the members of her sewing club Monday, Oct. 25, at the Smith apartments.

The interclub club will hold the next meeting with Miss Hannah White Monday afternoon, Oct. 25, at 546 East Second South street. This club is composed of the Jewish girls of the city.

The first meeting of the Regimental Bridge club for the season will be held next Tuesday evening, Oct. 26, those entertaining the club being Major and Mrs. James Arrasmith, Lieutenant and Mrs. Edwin Dutson, Lieutenant and Mrs. Adams and Lieutenant O. Ellis.

The Monday Afternoon Card club will hold its next meeting Monday, Oct. 25, at the home of Mrs. James Ingelbreten in East Second South street.

The Rosebud club will hold its next meeting Tuesday, Oct. 26, at the home of Agnes Sullivan, 1350 Lincoln avenue.

The annual donation of the Deaconsess house will occur Tuesday, Oct. 26, at the Deaconsess home, No. 347 South Fourth East street.

Mrs. M. A. Alvord will be the hostess for the members of her bridge club at their next meeting, Friday, Nov. 5.

The C. J. club will meet at the home of Miss Beale Wilcox on Monday evening, Oct. 25.

The members of the Crystal Card club will hold their next meeting on Tuesday evening, Nov. 10, by Mrs. C. A. Quigley.

Mrs. S. O. S. Nelden entertained informally at a delightful bridge tea given Saturday afternoon at her home in P street. A pretty arrangement of nasturtiums and cosmos were used in the decorations.

The home of Mrs. A. T. Sanford in the Virginia apartments was the scene of a pretty bridge tea given Saturday afternoon. Five tables of bridge were played, and the house was prettily decorated in pink, white and cream.

C. P. Overfield will entertain at a stag dinner at the Alta club Monday night.

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was the hostess at a charming bridge tea given at the Country club yesterday afternoon. Autumn leaves were used with pretty effect on the table, and a mound of nasturtiums graced the centerpiece.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the luncheon given yesterday by the Misses Beulah and Norma Woodruff at their home in Fifth East street, the guest of honor being Miss Veda Beebe. The dining room was decorated in a color scheme of yellow, a lace piece over yellow satin covering the table, which was decorated with shaded candelabra. The centerpiece was a golden pumpkin, filled with yellow nasturtiums, which were held by lighted tapers. Autumn leaves were used in decorating the dining room and the parlor, where clusters of pink roses were also used with charming effect.

The invited guests were the Misses Viola and Mignon Denhalter, Miss Sybilla Clayton, Miss Elsie Yates, Miss Margaret Warner, Miss Louise Clawson, Miss Francis McChrystal, Miss Albo Dunbar, Miss Alice Nibley, Miss Rea Nibley, Miss Emma Beebe and Mrs. O. C. Beebe.

Miss Jean McNeil was the hostess at a delightful Orpheum party given yesterday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. William St. Clair Rivers, a recent bride. Luncheon at Franklin's followed the matinee.

A delightful stag dinner at the Louvre, following a theatre party, was given last night in honor of B. A. Betiloy, who will be married next week.

Mrs. R. W. Madsen entertained at

At the Immanuel Baptist church today the following musical program will be given:

Morning.
Organ prelude, Andante Grazioso.....
Anthem, "Swiss is Thy Mercy".....
Offertory, Quasi Pastorale.....
Solo, "Swiss is Thy Mercy".....
Postlude, Festal March.....

Evening.
Organ prelude, Andante Con Moto.....
Anthem, "Swiss is Thy Mercy".....
Offertory, Quasi Pastorale.....
Solo, "Swiss is Thy Mercy".....
Postlude, Festal March.....

At the rally day services to be held this morning at the First Methodist church in place of the regular Sunday school services, four musical selections will be given by Miss Ethel Nettleton's orchestra. The services will begin at 10 o'clock.

Miss Stella Fabian has again resumed her position as soloist in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, after a few weeks' absence.

Rowland P. Williams, baritone, will be the soloist at both services of the First Presbyterian church today. At the morning service, Mr. Williams will sing a selection entitled, "Come Unto Me," by Lindsay. For the offertory number the quartet will sing a selection, "Great is Thy Love," by Behn. In the evening there will be a special musical program.

Miss Locke, who possesses a beautiful dramatic soprano voice, was for some time a pupil of M. J. Brines, and is now studying under Hugh Douglas. She has been the soprano soloist at St. Paul's Episcopal church for a number of years, and is also a pianist of ability, having studied here under Madame Clark, formerly of the Columbia conservatory in Ohio.

Miss Maude Thorne will preside at the organ, and the violin obligatos will be played by Professor George Skelton.

The following program has been arranged for the musical services at St. Mary's cathedral today:

Morning.
Gloria.....
Credo.....
Sanctus.....
Agnus Dei.....
Postlude.....

Evening.
Gloria.....
Credo.....
Sanctus.....
Agnus Dei.....
Postlude.....

The music for the First Methodist church today will be as follows:

Morning.
Anthem, "I Will Extol Thee".....
Offertory.....
Postlude.....

Evening.
Anthem, "In Heavenly Love Abiding".....
Offertory.....
Postlude.....

At the reception given at the First Presbyterian church Friday evening, an excellent musical program was given under the direction of Miss Maude Thorne. The program included piano selections by Miss Joy De Camp and Miss Gladys McCormick, vocal solos by Miss Ethel Nettleton and Miss Stella Fabian, and a quartet by the ladies of the church.

A piano recital will be given by the pupils of Professor P. N. Cook at the First Presbyterian church next Friday evening, Oct. 29. Mr. Cook will be assisted by Mrs. F. J. Armstrong, reader, and the German "Harmos" Chorus society. The program for the evening is as follows:

Introductory number:
Rhapsody (Waltz Brilliant, four hands).
Sonata, Op. 7 (last four movements).
A. La Chevaleresque.....
A. La Sprague.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....

At the musical service preceding the usual church service at the First Congregational church this morning, Organist Tracy V. Cannon will play as preludes, an "Andante in E flat" by Gullstrand, and several Gregorian numbers, also by Gullstrand. The offertory will be a number, "Prayer," by Lemmens, and a postlude by Rind.

A piano recital will be given by the pupils of Professor P. N. Cook at the First Presbyterian church next Friday evening, Oct. 29. Mr. Cook will be assisted by Mrs. F. J. Armstrong, reader, and the German "Harmos" Chorus society. The program for the evening is as follows:

Introductory number:
Rhapsody (Waltz Brilliant, four hands).
Sonata, Op. 7 (last four movements).
A. La Chevaleresque.....
A. La Sprague.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....

At the musical service preceding the usual church service at the First Congregational church this morning, Organist Tracy V. Cannon will play as preludes, an "Andante in E flat" by Gullstrand, and several Gregorian numbers, also by Gullstrand. The offertory will be a number, "Prayer," by Lemmens, and a postlude by Rind.

A piano recital will be given by the pupils of Professor P. N. Cook at the First Presbyterian church next Friday evening, Oct. 29. Mr. Cook will be assisted by Mrs. F. J. Armstrong, reader, and the German "Harmos" Chorus society. The program for the evening is as follows:

Introductory number:
Rhapsody (Waltz Brilliant, four hands).
Sonata, Op. 7 (last four movements).
A. La Chevaleresque.....
A. La Sprague.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....

At the musical service preceding the usual church service at the First Congregational church this morning, Organist Tracy V. Cannon will play as preludes, an "Andante in E flat" by Gullstrand, and several Gregorian numbers, also by Gullstrand. The offertory will be a number, "Prayer," by Lemmens, and a postlude by Rind.

A piano recital will be given by the pupils of Professor P. N. Cook at the First Presbyterian church next Friday evening, Oct. 29. Mr. Cook will be assisted by Mrs. F. J. Armstrong, reader, and the German "Harmos" Chorus society. The program for the evening is as follows:

Introductory number:
Rhapsody (Waltz Brilliant, four hands).
Sonata, Op. 7 (last four movements).
A. La Chevaleresque.....
A. La Sprague.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....

At the musical service preceding the usual church service at the First Congregational church this morning, Organist Tracy V. Cannon will play as preludes, an "Andante in E flat" by Gullstrand, and several Gregorian numbers, also by Gullstrand. The offertory will be a number, "Prayer," by Lemmens, and a postlude by Rind.

A piano recital will be given by the pupils of Professor P. N. Cook at the First Presbyterian church next Friday evening, Oct. 29. Mr. Cook will be assisted by Mrs. F. J. Armstrong, reader, and the German "Harmos" Chorus society. The program for the evening is as follows:

Introductory number:
Rhapsody (Waltz Brilliant, four hands).
Sonata, Op. 7 (last four movements).
A. La Chevaleresque.....
A. La Sprague.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....

At the musical service preceding the usual church service at the First Congregational church this morning, Organist Tracy V. Cannon will play as preludes, an "Andante in E flat" by Gullstrand, and several Gregorian numbers, also by Gullstrand. The offertory will be a number, "Prayer," by Lemmens, and a postlude by Rind.

A piano recital will be given by the pupils of Professor P. N. Cook at the First Presbyterian church next Friday evening, Oct. 29. Mr. Cook will be assisted by Mrs. F. J. Armstrong, reader, and the German "Harmos" Chorus society. The program for the evening is as follows:

Introductory number:
Rhapsody (Waltz Brilliant, four hands).
Sonata, Op. 7 (last four movements).
A. La Chevaleresque.....
A. La Sprague.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....

At the musical service preceding the usual church service at the First Congregational church this morning, Organist Tracy V. Cannon will play as preludes, an "Andante in E flat" by Gullstrand, and several Gregorian numbers, also by Gullstrand. The offertory will be a number, "Prayer," by Lemmens, and a postlude by Rind.

A piano recital will be given by the pupils of Professor P. N. Cook at the First Presbyterian church next Friday evening, Oct. 29. Mr. Cook will be assisted by Mrs. F. J. Armstrong, reader, and the German "Harmos" Chorus society. The program for the evening is as follows:

Introductory number:
Rhapsody (Waltz Brilliant, four hands).
Sonata, Op. 7 (last four movements).
A. La Chevaleresque.....
A. La Sprague.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....
A. Die Nacht.....
A. Des Saenger Heim.....

At the rally day services to be held this morning at the First Methodist church in place of the regular Sunday school services, four musical selections will be given by Miss Ethel Nettleton's orchestra. The services will begin at 10 o'clock.</